The image features three mannequins in athletic wear (black and pink tops, orange and black leggings) performing backbends against a grey concrete wall. They are positioned in a row, each in a different pose. The mannequin on the left is in a full backbend with hands clasped above the head. The middle mannequin is in a similar pose but with arms extended upwards. The mannequin on the right is in a more pronounced backbend with arms extended upwards. A horizontal orange band is overlaid across the middle of the image, containing the text 'ENERGETIC SHOWSTOPPERS'. The floor is a dark grey concrete surface. The overall aesthetic is modern and athletic.
